NUMB. 3080

MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 1744.

Since our Laſt arrived the Mails from Holland, France, and Flanders.

Petersburgh, January 28.

WE are making great Preparations here to celebrating To-morrow the Birth-day of her Imperial Majeſty, who then enters into the 35th Year of her Age. As his Poliſh Majeſty has lately ſent his Order of the White Eagle to his Imperial Highneſs, the Empreſs has thought proper to ſend a Gentleman of her Bed-Chamber to Dreſden with the Order of St. Andrew for the Prince Royal and Electoral. It is believed, that after the Solemnity of the Birth-day is over, her Imperial Majeſty will fix the preciſe Time of her Departure for Moſcow. In the mean time, the Vice-Chancellor has declared to the Foreign Miniſters, that her Imperial Majeſty intends to continue in that City a full Year. Upon an Application from the King and Senate of Sweden, ſignifying that the Military Preparations in Denmark were carried on with greater Heat than ever, and that there is not the leaſt Appearance of a ſpeedy Peace, her Imperial Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant an annual Subſidy of 400,000 Rubles to the Court of Stockholm, the better to enable it to defray the Expences of the War; and Orders have been likewiſe iſſued, for holding in conſtant Readineſs the additional Succours that are to be ſent to the Aſſiſtance of the Swedes, in caſe the War ſhould break out; and beſides all this, there is great Reaſon to believe that a Squadron of Men of War, and another of Gallies, will be ſent to join the Swediſh Fleet early in the Spring. An Edict has been lately publiſhed here, forbidding, under the higheſt Penalties, the bringing any Indian or Chineſe Goods into any of the Provinces of this Empire.

Stockholm, January 3. The King of Denmark having given ſuch an Anſwer to our Miniſter, Count Teſſin, as is by no Means ſatisfactory to our Court, we in a manner give up all Hopes of Peace, and are providing, in the beſt Manner we can, to carry on the War, when it ſhall be begun, with Vigour. As the Princeſs Louiſa of Denmark is to eſpouſe the Duke of Cumberland, another Marriage is talked of for his Royal Swediſh Highneſs, viz. with the Princeſs of Heſſe-Caſſel, which would give extraordinary Satisfaction to his Majeſty, who gives daily the ſtrongeſt Marks of Eſteem and Affection for his Succeſſor. M. Lelienfeldt, late Miniſter from this Court to the Ottoman Emperor, has lately paid into the Royal Treaſury 85,300 Florins; being part of the Subſidies paid by the Porte to this Crown, in Virtue of Treaties.

Lisbon, December 18. The Fleet from Rio-de-Janeiro arrived here this Week, and conſiſts of two Men of War and 19 Merchant-men; ſo that two only are wanting, which are daily expected. We do not exactly know, as yet, the Value of its Lading; but we apprehend there may be on the King's and on private Account together, 12 or 13 Millions of Cruſados, 37,000 Carats of Diamonds, 3000 Cheſts of Sugars, Woods, Hides, and other Goods. The Fleet from the Bay of All-Saints is almoſt hourly expected, ſome of the Ships that compoſe it having been already ſeen on our Coaſts. His Majeſty is not only much better than he was, but much better than we expected; ſo that his principal Miniſters attend him, as uſual, of a Morning, and report to him, from time to time, all that is done in Council, and the Advices they receive from foreign Courts. It is ſaid, that M. de Chavigni will return hither again in the Spring.

Madrid, December 31. It having been lately declared, that the Marquis de Candia is to remain at Liſbon, with the Title of his Catholick Majeſty's Ambaſſador, the King will very ſpeedily name another to Denmark, with which Court we are determined to keep up a cloſe Correſpondence, for Reaſons which will ſpeedily appear. The Maſter of an Advice-Boat lately arrived in Galicia, and which came from the Havanna in the Beginning of October laſt, reports, that every Thing is perfectly quiet as can be in the Weſt Indies; and that they launched, a little before he left the Havanna, an exceeding new Man of War, carrying 70 Guns. The Cargo of this Ship is compoſed of Tobacco, and ſome other Goods, but all upon the Account of the Crown. Our Preparations for War are carried on, and that with ſuch Earneſtneſs, as if all that had hitherto been done, had been preparatory only for what is to follow.

Bologna, January 4. Prince Lobkowitz grows daily ſtronger and ſtronger, and is making almoſt imperceptible Advances towards the Spaniards, with a View of preventing their Eſcape. In the mean time, notwithſtanding they give out that they are ſo well poſted as to fear nothing, and are in no danger of wanting Proviſions, and are even preparing Play and Opera-Houſes in their Head Quarters, yet we have certain Information they are miſerably diſtreſſed. The Duke of Modena has wiſely withdrawn himſelf to Venice, from an Army in which, tho' it owes its preſent Strength to his Influence, yet, in reality, he had no Authority, Count de Gages carrying all Things againſt his Serene Highneſs's Opinion in Councils of War. All their Baggage is moving from Piſcara towards the Kingdom of Naples; and we expect to hear ſpeedily of ſome Conventions being propoſed, to enable them to follow their Baggage.

Vienna, January 11. On the 7th, at Six in the Evening, the Marriage of Prince Charles with the Arch-Ducheſs Mary-Anne was celebrated in the Auguſtine Church adjoining to the Court. The Prince, cloathed in a kind of Spaniſh Dreſs, with a Mantle all of Cloth of Silver, and accompanied by all the Knights of the Golden Fleece, and Miniſters of State, with a large Number of Chamberlains, and others of the Nobility, walk'd in Proceſſion to the Church. Next followed the Great Duke in a Dreſs of Cloth of Gold; and then the Queen, leading the Arch-Ducheſs. In this manner they proceeded to Church thro' an incredible Crowd of People; and after the Ceremony, which laſted about half an Hour, returned in the ſame Order. The next Day there was a very grand Opera at Court in the old Imperial Taſte; and Yeſterday a Ball. On Sunday next there is to be a Maſquerade in the Riding-houſe, which is to be illuminated with 6000 Wax Lights. On this Occaſion, ſixteen Knights of the Order of the Golden Fleece were created. The Prince and his Conſort are to ſet out, it is ſaid, the 24th of February, for Bruſſels. The Recruits go on extremely well in Bohemia and Moravia. In theſe two Countries they are forming a Militia of 24,000 Men to be furniſhed by the Nobility; and it is ſaid, that the like Eſtabliſhment will be made for the preſent in Hungary; viz. 40,000 Men to be held in Readineſs, and 10,000 to be immediately formed. From Italy we have nothing new. All the Auſtrian Army remained at Rimini. The following is a Liſt of the Military Promotions made here upon the 8th of January.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Paris. January 22. 'The King has appointed the 'Chevalier de Chevelin, Major-General of his Majeſty's 'Army that is to go to Italy.

'The Comte Montijo, Ambaſſador from his Catholick 'Majeſty to the Emperor, will return to Franckfort to-'wards the End of this Week.

'M. de Vaſolles, Intendant of Bezancon, is appointed 'Intendant at Strasbourg, and will ſhortly ſet out for 'that City.

'It is ſaid, that the Equipage of M. de Buſſy are come 'back to this City.

This Piece of News is confirmed by private Letters, which add, that the Marquis de Fenelon will immediately return to the Hague, in order to make new Propoſitions of Peace to the States-General, upon which all the Hopes of the French Court are grounded, of bringing about a Congreſs, which would yet prevent the Sailing of the joint Fleets from Toulon; which is a Meaſure the Miniſtry have been obliged to take, by the warm Solicitations of the Court of Spain.

'We learn from Strasbourg, that M. Coigny ſtill con-'tinues there, and is likewiſe ſtill much indiſpoſed; 'and that they are employed in remounting the Cavalry 'with the utmoſt Diligence.

'The laſt Letters from Petersburgh aſſure us, that 'the Marquis de la Chetardie has been received with 'the greateſt Teſtimonies of Friendſhip and Reſpect, 'by all the principal Lords of the Court of Ruſſia; and 'that his Excellency had lately received a Preſent from 'the Czarina, valued at 20,000 Livres.

'We are aſſured, that Seid Mehemet Baſhaw, Begler-'beg of Romelia, who was formerly Ambaſſador from 'the Ottoman Emperor to this Court, will ſpeedily re-'turn hither with the ſame Character; but with what 'View this Embaſſy is deſigned, we are not able to 'ſay.

'There has been, for ſome Days, ſo exceſſive a Froſt 'felt here, that the River Seine is frozen up to its very 'Source, which has occaſioned a good deal of Miſchief, 'eſpecially in the Baſon between Pont Neuf and Pont 'Royal; where a great many Boats, laden with Wood 'and other Merchandize, have ſunk, and the Loſs is 'computed at upwards of 100,000 Livres.'

At Boſton, the John, Inches, from London.

At Calabar, the Rainbow, Owen, from Briſtol.

LONDON.

After all the boaſted Succeſſes of the French Negociations in Ruſſia, this may be depended on, that the Czarina's Acceſſion to the Treaty of Breſlau was negociated jointly by the Pruſſian and Britiſh Miniſters; as appears by the Inſtrument itſelf, ſigned at Petersburgh on the 11th of November, O. S. 1743, by Alexander Count Beſtuchef Rumin, Carl Brevern, and Cyril Wich.

Some private Letters from Stockholm, mention the Diſcovery of dangerous Intrigues among the Peaſants, in various Parts of the Kingdom of Sweden, carried on by the Emiſſaries of a neighbouring Courts which had occaſioned the ſending Count Spaen to Petersburgh, and the ſudden Reſolution of recalling both Count Teſſin and Baron Palmſtierna from Copenhagen.

They write from Franckfort, that the Dyet of the Empire is exceedingly alarmed, at a Report as if Baron Palm had it in direction from the Queen his Miſtreſs, to declare, that if the Dyet preſumed to expunge her Proteſts, lately tranſmitted to the Dictature by the Elector of Mentz, ſhe would immediately detach all her Dominions from the Empire for ever.

His Imperial Majeſty has given Orders for doubling the Walloon Regiment of Guards, raiſed for his Service, and has directed all his Forces to be complete by the 1ſt of April; when they are to rendezvous at Wombidingen, and to be declared a free, active, Imperial Army, by the Authority of the Diet, and are to be commanded by a Prussian General.

It is hoped, that the approaching Election of a Bishop and Prince of Liege, will take a Turn favourable to the Interests of the Allies, since the Day of Election is fixed to the 23d, N.S. by the Party for Baron Ederen; who had a Majority, on that Occasion, against the Bavarian Interest, of 21 Voices to 17.

Some private Letters from Paris, by the last Mail, say, that the Republick of Genoa has not only demanded his most Christian Majesty's Protection, in the present critical Conjuncture; but has also offered to furnish no less than 12,000,000, towards the Expence of transporting an Army into Italy, and have undertaken to provide them Quarters.

On Saturday Morning a Fire broke out at a House in Love-Lane at Rotherhithe, which destroyed upwards of 20 Houses and small Tenements, before it was got under; and, we hear, that two Children perished in the Flames.

Yesterday Morning a Fire broke out in the House of a Haberdasher in Cornhill, which burnt with great Violence; for Want of Water it spread itself, so that it burnt the two Top Floors of two others, and did considerable Damage to the House in which it began, and likewise to St. Michael's Church. One Goodhall, a Porter, belonging to the London Assurance, fell from the Top of the House into St. Michael's Alley, and instantly died.

The Companies of the Pembroke's Prize, and the Stromboio Fireship, are ordered to be paid the Wages due to them to the 30th of June, 1742.

Last Week died at Exeter, after a few Days Illness, Mr. Thomas Page, an eminent Undertaster in Cornhill.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Gilly preach'd before his Majesty and the Royal Family at the Chapel Royal at St. James's.

His Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint the Reverend Dr. Barnard, Dean of Rochester, to be Bishop of Raphoe in Ireland

A Dispensation has pass'd the Great Seal to enable the Rev. Decimus Reynolds, M. A. to hold the Rectory of Chalfont St. Giles in the County of Bucks, together with the Vicarage of Aylesbury in the said County.

Also a Dispensation to enable the Rev. John Minett, M. A. to hold the Rectory of Eythorne in the County of Kent, together with the Rectory of Notherheads, alias Handress Parva, in the said County.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Portland came to Town, in good Health, from his Seat at Bulstrode in Buckinghamshire.

The same Day Died, at his House in Charles-street, Westminster, the Right Rev. Dr. Richard Reynolds, Lord Bishop of Lincoln. His Lordship was made Bishop of Bangor in the Year 1721, and in the Year 1723 was translated to the See of Lincoln.

Last Saturday, at the Sessions-House in the Old Bailey, eleven Prisoner's were try'd, of whom one was capitally convicted; viz. Joseph Isaacs, otherwise M'Coy, for a Burglary. And he, with the two others convicted on Friday, received Sentence of Death.

Seven were cast for Transportation. And,

Three Acquitted.

The Middlesex Jury were discharged, and the London Jury adjourned to this Day, for the Trial of Misdemeanours.
